The Indonesian Pesantren or Islamic boarding school Coordinating Body or BKsPPI Bogor, West Java has declared their support to the Regency-Vice Regency candidates Ade Wardhana and Asep Ruhiyat or AA. The declaration of the Body comprises of 400 Islamic boarding schools took place in Bogor on Thursday (19 April).

In the occasion, the Chairman of BKsPPI Bogor, cleric Bubung Burhanudin, has read their commitments.

To support and to vote for AA in the coming regional elections.

To organize all members of BKsPPI network to win AA in the political race.

To instruct all cleric, santri (students of pesantren) and Pesantren alumni to support AA.

They also said that they would monitor, guard, and constructively criticize them during their future administration.

According to the cleric, the Body's commitments are due to AA's having commitment to synergize with the ulema in developing and administrating the regency of Bogor.
